SV left the room while the AGM discussed his confirmation. There were no objections and the AGM voted to approve Steve McVeigh to be confirmed into the role of Chair for a three year term. JLB and JM then introduced the nominations for the contested positions of Treasurer; Student Officer; and Student Committee Member x2. Each member present were given a paper voting ballot to vote by preference at the end of the AGM. Following a count conducted by JM and JLM (Returning Officers) on Thursday 5th September, the following candidates were elected to the committee position of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Treasurer: Tania Struetzel (3 year term) Student Committee Members: Gary Donaldson and Madeleine Pownall (1 year term) Student Officer: Kiu Sum (3 year term) For the voting record, please see Appendix 1: RAISE Ordinary Committee Member Voting Record. 	Jenny Marie and Jill LeBihan (Returning Officers)

4	Review of RAISE activities for 2018-19: Committee Report <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Finances Colin Bryson: CB tabled the budget (Appendix 2 – available on request) giving a financial report updating on RAISE’s spending activities of the year. CB opened for questions on the 2018 budget and there were none. CB then updated on the plans for next year’s budget (2019), opened for questions and there were none. - Communications and networking Jill LeBihan: JLB updated members on RAISE’s successful bid to be the Student Engagement’ page in the AdvanceHE Connect Platform. JLB encouraged members to become engaged with the platform and follow the RAISE page. JLB announced that this successful bid included £1,500 of funding which will be used to support the publicity of the platform. JLB opened for questions and there were none. - Journal Rachel Forsyth: RF gave an update on the Student Engagement in Higher Education Journal tabling a detailed paper on the journal’s activities which has reached over 100,000 downloads since the journal was established. RF opened the invitation for members to engage with the journal as authors, reviewers and readers. RF opened for questions and the AGM had none. - SIGS Jenny Marie: JM gave an update on the Special Interest Group activities from 2018-19: RAISE currently has five Special Interest Groups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Partnership • Engaging Assessment • Inclusive Practice • Postgraduate & Professional Practice • Research & Evaluation Partnership SIG convenors: Wendy Garner (g.garner@chester.ac.uk) and Peg Murphy (p.murphy@chester.ac.uk) Peg took over as co-convenor from Abbi Flint in January 2019. This year the partnership SIG has had a meeting at the RAISE Conference and a SIG event at Westminster University on 30 January 2019, with Lucy Mercer-Mapstone as the keynote speaker. Materials are linked to from the RAISE SIG webpage. SIG events for next year are planned for the RAISE Conference 2019 and 20 November 2019 in Chester, with Mick and Ruth Healey as keynotes. Engaging Assessment SIG convenors: Paula O’Brien (POBrien@lincoln.ac.uk), Jagjeet Jutley-Neilson (Jagjeet.Jutley-Neilson@warwick.ac.uk) and Kiu Sum (kiu.sum7@gmail.com) This year the SIG had a meeting at the RAISE conference, held a #LTHE chat on 13 March 2019 and held a meeting at the University of Lincoln on 21 May. ---	---	-----------------

	SIG Convenor: Paddy Turner (p.turner@shu.ac.uk) Paddy was elected as convenor in December 2018, replacing Mark O’Hara. This year the SIG had a meeting at the RAISE conference and an event at Sheffield Hallam on 12 February 2019. It will hold a SIG session at the RAISE 2019 conference. Postgraduate and Professional Practice SIG Convenor: Duncan Cross (D.Cross@bolton.ac.uk) Duncan took over from Catherine Hayes in November 2018. The SIG did not have any events between September 2017-September 2018, including at the RAISE 2018 conference, which has meant that the SIG membership has become dispersed. Duncan organised an event at the University of Bolton for 21 January 2019, with himself and Julie Prescott to talk about the Research Degree Supervision Toolkit, but it had to be postponed due to a lack of people signing up for the event. Duncan ran a webinar instead on 15 July, which was attended by 5 people. Though attendance was small, participants were very interested. If anyone, particularly a student, would like to drive the SIG forward, Duncan would be happy to support them to do this. Research & Evaluation SIG convenors: Stuart Sims (stuart.sims@port.ac.uk), Wilko Luebsen (w.luebsen2@londonmet.ac.uk), Caroline Wilson (caroline.wilson@coventry.ac.uk) Caroline joined the convenor team in November 2018. The SIG had an event at the RAISE conference in 2018. It has met at London Met on 29 November, with talks by Susannah Hume (Kings College) and Ellie Russell (TSEP) and again on 26 March 2019 at University of Brighton with talks by Fiona Handley and Catherine McConnell. The SIG is also coordinating 2 collaborative research projects. It will hold an event at the RAISE Conference 2019. JM opened for questions and the AGM had none. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Student engagement Kiu Sum, Madeleine Pownall & Gary Donaldson: KS updated on the University ambassadors scheme of RAISE to increase communications with students locally, MP reported the successful set up of a local pedagogy group at Leeds University and GD emphasised the importance of reaching out beyond the UK for student engagement.
